CRYPTOCURRENCY TRADING

We see great prospects in this particular instrument of investment and passive income generation

Cryptocurrency gives cross-border freedom

- erases national borders
- removes currency restrictions
- overturns the classical understanding of the financial system

The location of the investor is not important

Transfers do not have territorial and state boundaries

No pegging to bank accounts

INVESTMENT IN CRYPTOFUNDING BASED ON ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

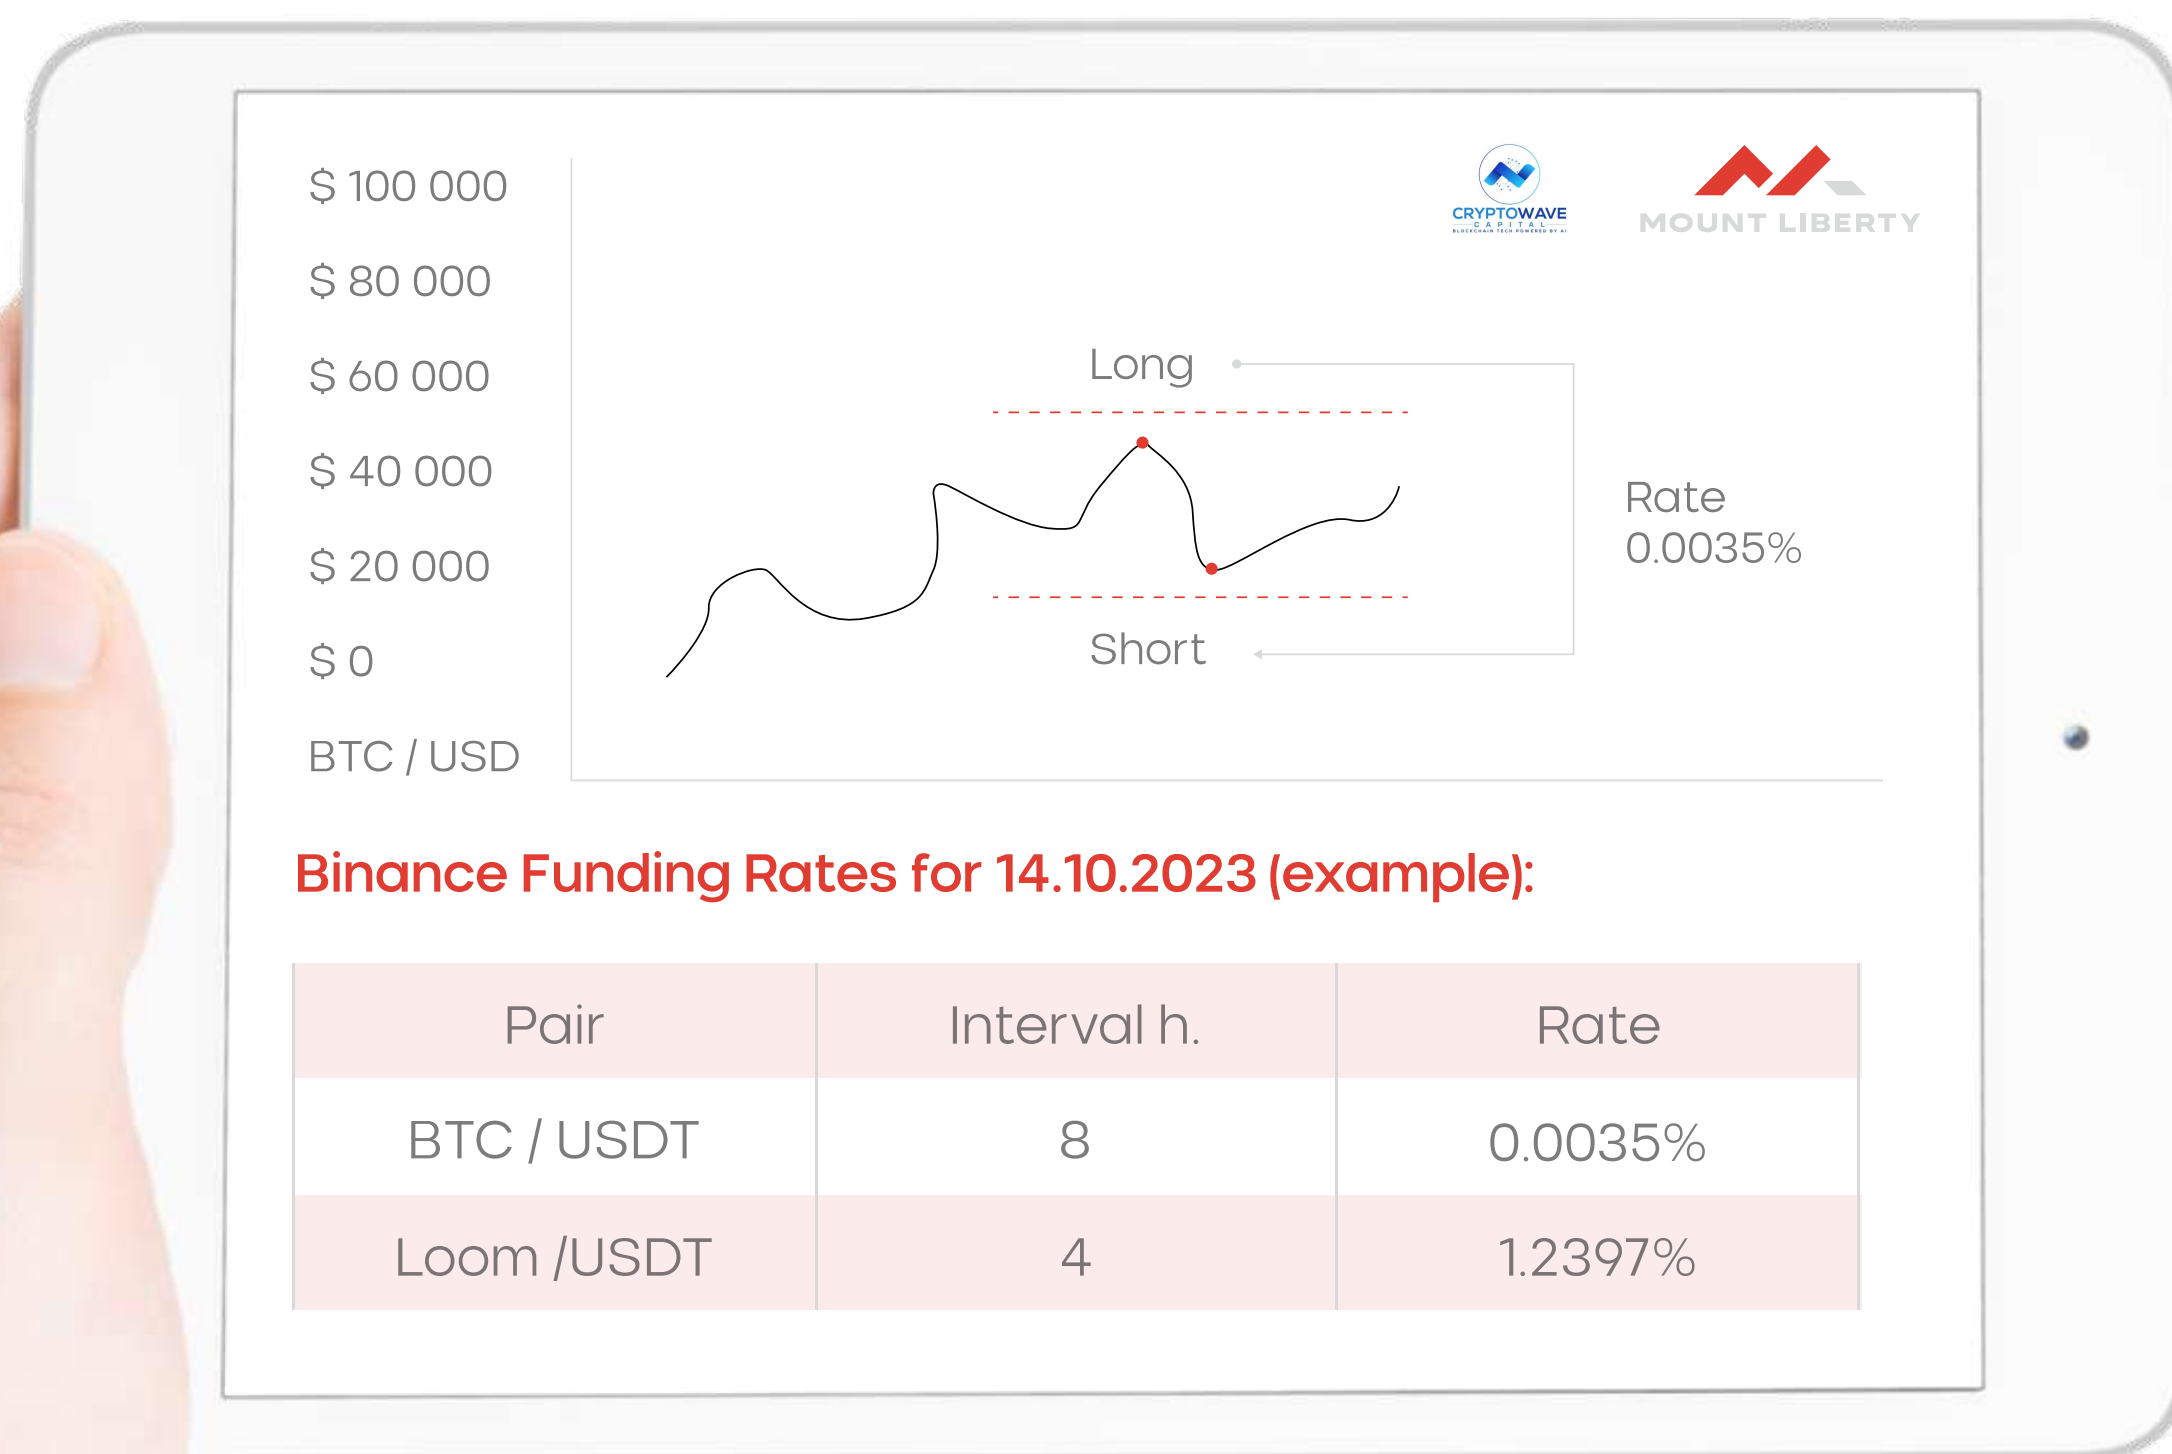

Funding rates are periodic payments to long or short traders based on the difference between the spot market and the termless futures market. Depending on the open position, the trader either pays or receives financing rates

Artificial intelligence (project patent) automatically transfers investor's funds into cryptofunding on major exchanges to earn a percentage of the trader's positions and bring passive income to the investor.

Thanks to this instrument, investors receive stable
annual returns

HOW DOES CRYPTO FUNDING WORK?

In an uptrend

Due to the fact that most traders hold long positions, the funding rate takes a positive value, and traders holding long positions have to pay a funding fee to traders holding short positions.

In a downtrend, it's the opposite:

because most traders hold short position, the funding rate becomes negative and short position traders have to pay a funding fee to long position traders.

SECURITY SYSTEM IN CRYPTOFUNDING

01

INVERSE FUTURES CONTRACT INSURES OUR POSITIONS IN CASE OF A SHARP MARKET REVERSAL

Definition

If the price of the underlying asset, e.g. BTC, goes up, the price of the contract in USD goes down and vice versa

Thereby, regardless of the BTC price, the amount in USD is unchanged

02

PREDICTED FUNDING RATE

Definition

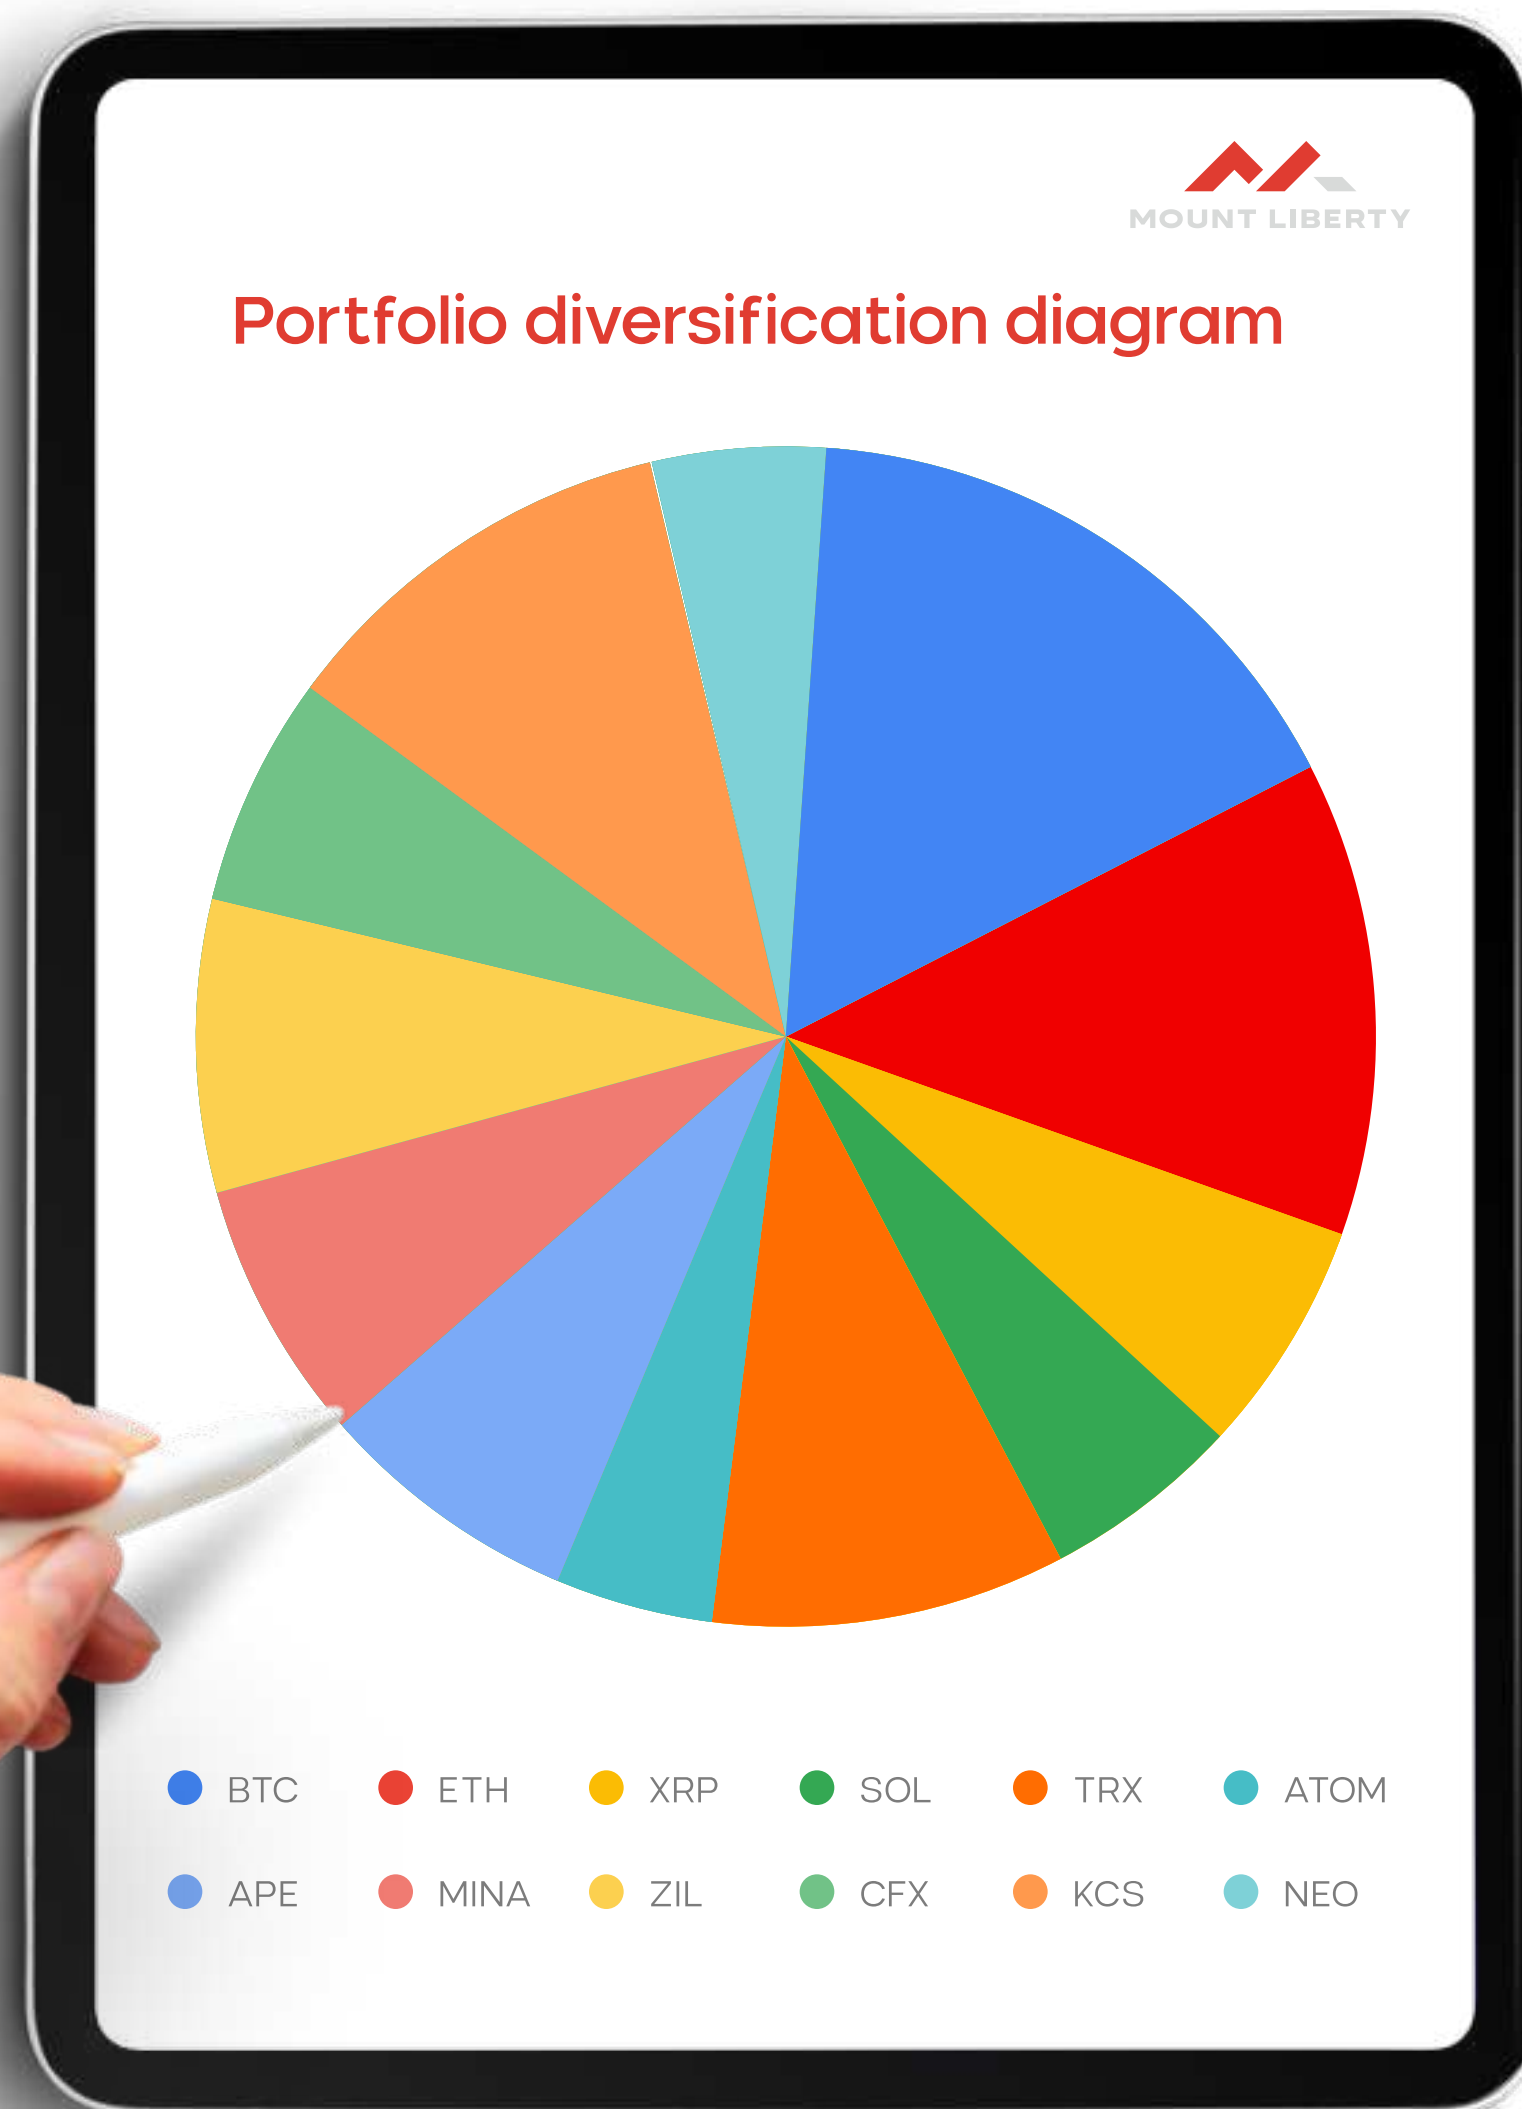

This is the exchange's estimate of what the rate will be at the end of the current funding interval

In 1 hour the exchange gives its forecast for the new rate, which allows the software to react quickly to changes

RISK MINIMISATION

When investing, it is important to diversify risks

That's why we invest some of our profits in more traditional business logistics with varying degrees of profitability

We understand the dynamism of today's marketplace

Therefore, we are always looking for more favourable investment instruments and constantly improve our algorithms for working with them
